An Eye for Detail

This beautiful period home has been lovingly restored and meticulously maintained. Tastefully decorated throughout, every detail has been attended to - from the natural timber finish picture rails to the charming french doors opening onto the wrap around verandah where you can enjoy an afternoon drink whilst taking in the semi rural views. Summer entertaining is a breeze under the shady grapevines covering the rear entertaining area. Comfortable year round, this charming family home has a cosy tile fire perfectly positioned in the open kitchen/dining/living area for the cool winter nights and ducted evaporative cooling to keep you cool during summer. A fully fenced rear yard has beautiful gardens including fruit trees and a herb garden close to the back door to enhance your culinary creations created in the spacious electric kitchen. Homes of this quality are a rare find - be sure to book your inspection as soon as possible as it won't last long!
